The Daily Courant.

Friday, October 22. 1703.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated October 25.

Paris, October 16.

THE Cardinal de Noailles sung Te Deum on the Fourth instant, in obedience to the following Letter from the King.

Cousin,

The Princes of Germany having blindly, and against their common Interests, espous'd the Emperor's peculiar Quarrel, my Brother the Elector of Bavaria has singly taken Arms to maintain the Liberty of the Empire. The Alliance in which he is engag'd with me, oblig'd me to send at the beginning of the Campaigne the Succours he desir'd of me, to maintain with Success what he had begun with so much Courage. My Cousin the Marshal de Villars broke through all the Obstacles which the Enemy and Nature had laid to stop his passage, and open'd himself a Way into Bavaria with part of the Army he commanded on the Rhine. The Alarm, which so unexpected a Junction spread as far as Vienna, oblig'd the Emperor to muster up his Forces to oppose those which he found had united in the Heart of Germany. But I am inform'd, that whatever Efforts his Generals have been able to make, the Elector of Bavaria has entirely defeated one of his Armies commanded by the Count de Stirum in the Plain of Hochster on the 20th of last Month. Above 8000 of the Enemy kill'd on the Place or made Prisoners, the rest put to the Rout and dispers'd in the Woods without Arms, Baggage, or Ammunition, which they abandon'd with the Field, 33 Pieces of Cannon, a great number of Kettle-Drums, Standards, and Colours taken from them, leave no room to doubt that the Victory was complete. That Prince in the Relation he has sent me of this great Action, gives honourable Testimony of the Conduct and Valour of my Officers and Troops, and only passes over in silence the glorious Circumstances that relate to his personal Behaviour; But what I have learnt of it from the Marshal de Villars, confirms me more and more in the just Opinion I always had of his Merit and Valour. Being minded not to defer rendring Thanks to the Almighty for such Signal Success, I write you this Letter, to acquaint you that my Intention is you cause Te Deum to be sung in the Metropolitcal Church of my good City of Paris, &c.

Given at Fontainebleau, October 2. 1703.

Letters from Berlin of the 16th of this Month tell us, that the King of Prussia design'd to set out from thence the day after for Lutzebourg, where the Marriage of the Margrave Albrecht his Brother with the Princess of Courland was to be consummated; That a List was presented to his Prussian Majesty of all the Protestants of Orange who are to come to settle in his Territories, in which the Estate and Trade of each is particulariz'd: That his Prussian Majesty had resolv'd to rebuild Schonhausen near Berlin, and particularly to make a Canal from it to Lutzebourg; And that several hundred Men are employ'd in making the said Canal.

They write from Cleves of the 24th, that the Governour of Gelder persisting in his Resolution not to surrender, the Troops of the King of Prussia have been oblig'd to change the Siege of that Place into a Blockade, and that the Cannon and Mortars which had been made use of lately to bombard it are sent back to Wesel.

From the Rotterdam Gazette, dated October 25.

Bagnols, October 4. On the 2d of this Month two large Ships of the Enemies Fleet appear'd before the Port of Certe. The Governour of which Place order'd two Gallies to take a view of them, but the Wind growing boisterous they stood out again to Sea and were quickly out of sight. The Marshal de Montrevel has burnt 42 Villages in the Seveignes and in the Diocess of Mande. Mean time the Camisars in the lower Seveignes continue their Ravages. Last Week they kill'd the Governour of St. Gilles, with his Servants and 15 Workmen that were employ'd in Building a House near Ayguemortes; And one Samuel, who commanded the Party that did that Execution, caus'd the Cabins of the Fishermen that live on the side of the Lake which is in the Neighbourhood of that Place to be burnt, and all the ancient Catholicks he found thereabouts to be put to the Sword. Another of the Leaders of the Camisars call'd Cavalier, who is at the head of a Party of 800 Men, having Intelligence that the Dragoons of Firmancou were return'd to Sommieres from burning some Farm-houses about Serignau, and that they had Orders to march from thence, went thither in the Night on the 3d instant, beat up their Quarters, set some Houses on fire, and kill'd several Persons in that part of the Town call'd the Suburbs of the Cordeliers. They likewise burnt the Church of St. Amant with 7 or 8 Houses about it, kill'd 15 or 16 Persons, and committed divers other Disorders.
